SCHOOL CONTROVERSY

HIGH SCHOOL BOARD HEARS PROTESTS OF CATHOLIC WOMEN

A meeting of the Board of Trustees of Glendale Union High School was held Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the High School with C. W. Young, president, in the chair, and Trustees Claud O. Pulliam, Dan Campbell, Dr. A. L. Bryant and Hartley Shaw in attendance. Also in attendance were Prof. George U. Moyse, Father O'Neill, pastor of the Holy Family Catholic Church, and about fifty of his women parishioners .

Except for the reading of the minutes of previous meetings, practically no business was considered except a petition to the Board bearing 58 signatures protesting against the use of the First Methodist Church of Glendale for the graduating exercises of the class of 1918. In connection with the petition, other communications were read by Secretary Bryant, as follows: a letter from Mark Keppel, County Superintendent of Schools, in response to one addressed to him by Father O'Neill relative to the subject of controversy; a letter from Robert S. Jensen, proprietor of the Palace Grand Theatre, also addressed to the Board, tendering the use of the theatre without charge for the graduating exercises; a communication addressed to the Board by I. H. Durfee, president of the Federation Brotherhood, enclosing a resolution adopted by the Executive Committee of the Brotherhood, recommending that the Trustees secure the largest auditorium to be obtained for the commencement exercises, without regard to its previous use, and if the place selected is not acceptable to any members of the class, that such members be excused from attending the exercises and receive their diplomas privately; a letter from H. E. Chapin describing a similar situation in Warsaw, Indiana, in which the objecting priest and Catholic pupils were persuaded to waive their objections and attend exercises in a Presbyterian church, where they were held because it was the largest auditorium in the city.

Father O'Neill was then invited to explain his position and several of the ladies present were heard.

Board members expressed their desire for harmony and willingness to make reasonable concessions if they were asked in a friendly spirit as a courtesy and not as a demand to be enforced by law. No vote was taken on the matter in dispute, action being deferred until Monday afternoon, when another meeting will be held by the Board.

The letter from Superintendent of Schools Mark Keppel follows:

Office of Mark Keppel
Superintendent of Schools
Los Angeles, Calif.
May 4, 1918.

Rev. Jas. S. O'Neill,
311 West Lomita Ave.,
Glendale, Cal.

Dear Friend:

Your letter and the newspaper clipping of May 2nd are at hand, and I thank you for the same.

I presume that the newspaper clipping contains an exact copy of a written protest which has been signed and filed with the high school board of Glendale Union High School District. In view of that action, I take it for granted that the high school board will not hold the commencement exercises or any school exercises in any place of worship dedicated for the use of any religious organization.

Truly yours,
MARK KEPPEL,
Co. Supt. of Schools.

CRANFORD PLEASES

AUDIENCE CHARMED WITH PERFORMANCE OF T. A. CLUB MUSICIANS

"Cranford" was a gem of an entertainment and its promoters and performers should feel well repaid for their hard work when they consider the big audience which practically filled the house before eight o'clock. All promises were fulfilled and tumults of applause and laughter testified to sincere appreciation on the part of patrons. Part One, which consisted of the musical program furnished by the Bessie Fuhrer Sextette, was a delightful prelude and greatly enjoyed. These musicians, Bessie Fuhrer Erb, Alma Coleman, Ethelwyn Conrey, Doris Twohy, Susine Wessels and Larooka Conwell, were also in costume to match the Cranford ladies and, as in most programs, their opening number was "The Star-Spangled Banner."

It is hard to imagine in what respect "Cranford," picture of genteel society in an English interior town a century ago, could have been improved. The ladies and gentlemen who filled the roles looked their parts and were consummate artists. On the stage and in the hands of professionals it would probably have been ruined by grotesque exaggerations, but these women were ladies still in their assumed characters and the humor and delicacy of the work was irresistible.

Mrs. Freeman Kelley, who introduced the company in her character, Miss Mary Smith, the guest in Cranford, and who took the audience into her confidence in describing the special weaknesses of each one, was simply delightful, but the same thing was true of each quaintly dressed lady and gentleman who curtsied and contributed a chastely sentimental musical number to entertain Mrs. Forrester's guests after their season at cards.

First came Miss Tyler, clasping her red silk parasol with bulging pannier to the rear over which a much-looped overskirt was draped, wearing long basque and high hat with eccentric white feather for adornment. Clasping the umbrella in the fervor of her emotion, she sang "No One to Love, None to Caress," Mrs. Fitz Adams (Mrs. Roscoe Puffer) supplying the piano accompaniment. Her convulsed hearers were reluctant to let her go and she had to give them an encore. Then Miss Barker's sister (Mrs. M. E. Plasterer) gave a young lady piano number fitting well into the scene. A trio followed. Mrs. Forrester, as the old-fashioned gracious hostess, was beyond praise, and in this number, in which her associates were Miss Pole (Mrs. A. A. Barton) and Mrs. Fitz Adams (Mrs. Roscoe Puffer), her high-bred manner of singing "Three Blind Mice," was funnier than words can portray. It was only equalled by her performance in the duet with Miss Mary Smith (Mrs. Kelley), "Charming Belles of Long Ago."

The Hon. Mrs. Jamison (Mrs. L. N. Hagood) and Miss Barker (Miss Mildred Pray) gave an old-time piano duet in irreproachable manner, and then Mrs. ffarington (Mrs. Calvin Whiting), very impressive in appearance and the only lady accompanied by a cavalier, sang most beautifully "My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair," for which the aforesaid cavalier, Mr. ffoulks (Julius Kranz), furnished the accompaniment. With Mrs. Hagood at the piano, Miss Jessie Brown (Mrs. F. Pigg) did a delightful bit of soubrette work in the vocal solo, "My Grandma."

Next on the program was Miss Mattie Jenkens (Mrs. Frank Arnold), who took the audience by storm with "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms," responding to the importunate demand for an encore with "Sweet Alice, Ben Bolt," Mrs. Hagood furnishing the piano accompaniment.

Miss Brown, Mrs. Gladys G. Sherman), after securing permission from her papa, sang exquisitely, " 'Tis the Last Rose of Summer" to her own piano accompaniment. She is a protege of the celebrated opera singer and director, Senor de Pasquali. Then Miss Mattie Jenkens, with the Hon. Mrs. Jamison at the piano, was again induced to favor the company, this time singing the melodious "Genevieve," the company joining in the chorus.

Lady Glenmeyer (Mrs. Jesse Joseph) rose to depart, but was persuaded to remain and lead the minuet, danced in the irreproachable old style of those days, the other dancers being Mrs. Calvin Whiting, Mrs. M. E. Plasterer, Mrs. Gladys Gibbs Sherman, Mrs. L. N. Hagood, and Mrs. Walter Stamps, the latter, true to her comedienne role, creating much merriment by accentuating her eccentricities of manner and costume.

Auld Lang Syne was sung in unison and then with more curtsies and hand pressings, this time of farewell, Mrs. Forrester's guests departed and she was left to extinguish the candles while from a distance the voices of the departing ladies sweetly blended in "Home, Sweet Home."

As at first remarked, in setting, in costuming and rendition it was a thoroughly artistic performance and reflected great credit on the Music Section, the Tuesday Club and the community.

WAR WEDDING

A pretty but a very simple "war wedding" took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Freeman, at 795 Pacific avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Agnes Freeman, was united in marriage to Charles Ray Knapp of Tulare, where the Freeman family resided before coming to Glendale about a year ago.

Rev. Vernon H. Cowsert, pastor of Miss Freeman, was the officiating clergyman and the witnesses were limited to the immediate family and most intimate friends, viz., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Freeman, Athol Freeman, brother of the bride, Mrs. Athol Freeman, who played the wedding march, Mr. and Mrs. Willis George, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Marr, grandparents of the bride, and Mrs. Cowsert. Lovely pink and white roses furnished by a neighbor, Mrs. O'Brien, were lavishly used in decoration.

The ring ceremony was used and the bride was very sweet in a wedding gown of Georgette crepe trimmed with pearl beading and carrying a bouquet of white Cecil Bruner roses.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Knapp drove by auto to San Diego, where their honeymoon will be spent. They will make their home at Tulare, where the groom owns a fine ranch. The young people have been long acquainted and have a large circle of friends here and in Tulare who will rejoice in their happiness.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Kelley met with an accident Thursday evening while driving in their new car on Fifth street near Kenwood that could have been avoided and might have been much more serious than it was. Some boys, or rather young men, were playing ball in the street and without taking any pains to avoid passing motorists batted the ball through the windshield of Mr. Kelley's car. Had Mrs. Kelley been sitting on the front seat as she is accustomed to do, the flying glass might have blinded her. As it was, she was covered with particles of glass.

were upon motion granted, the former by motion of Trustee Henry and the latter upon motion of Trustee Jackson.

Reports were presented from the City Tax Collector, the City Treasurer, the City Clerk, and the City Health Officer, and were referred to the Finance Committee and ordered to be filed.

The City Manager reported that in regard to the hose contract with the American La France Company, a misunderstanding evidently existed as that company had delivered to the City 750 feet of hose instead of 500 feet as appears by the minutes of the Board of Trustees to have been ordered. On motion of Trustee Muhleman, the City Manager was instructed to write to the American La France Company requesting an explanation as to why the extra quantity of hose had been delivered. The following roll call, all voting Aye.

The Chairman stated that complaints have been made in regard to the City Dog Pound and the manner in which the dogs are disposed of. Upon motion of Trustee Muhleman the matter was referred to the Public Welfare Committee.

The City Manager stated that whereas the dog tax in the City of Glendale dates yearly from February 1st, in that part of the City which was formerly the City of Tropico owners of dogs have paid their licenses up to the first of August, and requested instructions from the City Attorney. The City Attorney stated that it would be proper to credit the owners of dogs in the Tropico District who have paid the license tax, with $1.00 on each of such payments for the year and collect the balance of $1.00 for payment up to February 1st, next.

The matter of changing the names of certain streets in the City was taken up and the motion presented by Trustee Shaw and seconded by Trustee Muhleman was adopted as follows:

Central avenue from San Fernando Blvd. to western terminus changed to Eulalia street; Blanche avenue and Damasco court changed to Maryland avenue; Oakwood avenue changed to Monterey road; San Fernando Blvd. and Second street in Pumping Plant Annexation District changed to San Fernando road. and the City Attorney instructed to draw up the necessary ordinance for that purpose. The following roll call: all voting Aye.

On motion of Trustee Shaw and seconded by Trustee Henry the following motion was adopted:

That names of the following streets be changed: First street, Second street, Third street, Fifth street, Orange Grove avenue, Sycamore street, Tenth street; that Seventh street and Elrose avenue be given the same name, which shall not be Seventh street; that Maple street and Eighth street be given the same name, which shall not be Eighth street; that Ninth street and Oak drive be given the same name and neither of the present names be used; that notice is hereby given to all residents on said streets to be changed that the above changes will be made by this Board at its regular meeting to be held May 23, 1918, and that if at or before that time a petition shall be filed with the Board signed by a majority of the residents on any of said streets designating a new name therefor which shall not be in conflict with the name of any other street in the City of Glendale, the name so designated will be adopted, otherwise this Board will select the names to be given said streets.

Trustee Henry made a motion which was adopted that the name of Tropico avenue within the City limits be changed to Los Feliz road. On motion of Trustee Henry it was ordered that the people residing on Burchett street be requested to express to the Board an opinion as to the desirability of changing the name of the street to Monterey road. By the following roll call: all voting Aye.

On motion of Trustee Muhleman it was ordered that the ordinance declaring intention to call an election be taken up for third reading and adoption, and when read was upon motion of Trustee Muhleman adopted by the following roll call: all voting Aye.

Doctor Mabry appeared before the Board as representative of the Tropioc Playground Association, stating that the association proposes to give a carnival on the 18th day of May, next, and requested that the City install without charge the necessary wiring for the light system on that occasion and furnish police protection, the entertainment being given for the benefit of the Red Cross. Upon motion of Trustee Henry, the Public Service Department was instructed to install the necessary lighting services for the occasion and the City Marshal to furnish the necessary police protection. Doctor Mabry expressed the opinion that it would be well for the City to take over the affairs of the Tropico Playground Association in order that better results may be obtained. Upon motion of Trustee Shaw, referred to City Attorney. Upon motion of Trustee Shaw it was ordered that a committee consisting of two trustees and the City Attorney be appointed to draft a set of resolutions to govern the Board of Trustees. As members of this committee the Chair appointed Trustees Shaw and Muhleman and the City Attorney.

Trustee Muhleman made a motion which was adopted instructing the City Attorney to prepare the necessary papers to provide for the calling of an election to name a Board of Freeholders to prepare a charter for the City of Glendale, all voting Aye.

The following resolution was presented by Trustee Muhleman, duly seconded: That J. W. Stauffacher be allowed $180 per month for the months of May and June, 1918, for acountancy work which he is performing in the office of the City Manager and that Miss Lillian Shropshire be allowed $80 per month for said months for clerical work and Miss Mock be allowed $75.00 per month for said month for services as stenographer and that J. C. Sherer be allowed $45 per month for said months for services as clerk for building inspector and Geo. T. Brewster be allowed $50 per month for said months for services as bill and demand clerk and that demands be drawn and presented accordingly. Resolution was adopted with the following roll call: Ayes: Henry, Muhleman, Shaw, Woodberry; Noes: Jackson.

At 10:30 p. m. upon motion of Trustee Jackson the Board took a recess of 30 minutes. At 11:05 the Board reconvened, all members being present.

Trustee Shaw made a motion which was duly seconded and adopted on roll call, all members voting Aye, "That contract for 600 feet of hose as set forth in the advertisement calling for the same, be awarded to the Boston Woven Hose and Rubber Company for the Bay State Brand at 65 cents per foot. On motion of Trustee Muhleman duly seconded and adopted on roll call, all voting Aye, it was ordered that bid of J. G. Hunchberger be accepted for one new 1918 E-6-44 Buick Roadster F. O. B. Glendale at $1450. On motion of Trustee Shaw duly seconded and adopted on roll call, all voting Aye, it was ordered that the bid of Gorham Fire Apparatus Company to supply a pump to be installed on the Knox Fire apparatus now in service for the sum of $2119 be accepted.

An Open Letter

Dear Madge:

Well, here we are at last on our annual camping trip, far from the madding crowd in the mountains, at the top of Louise street, Casa Verdugo, or as some call it, La Ramada, where we can look down on the busy world. Papa comes back and and forth in his limousine, we get mail twice a day, so that keeps us all from getting lonesome. Mama and I are getting breakfast ready while papa and his stenographer have gone hunting in the wilds to view the beauties of nature. Papa seems to think a lot of her. Ma calls her Miss Affinity. I suppose that word is taken from the angels, or Angelica. The fishing is fine up here, as pa said to ma that there was just as good fish in the sea to be caught as ever, because I heard him say it. There are lots of people up here fishing, and all kinds of fish stories, rich people and poor people, some who don't work and lots that don't want to, make-believe multi-millionaires. Well darling, write soon and try and get up to see us soon. Take the Glendale car from any place in America, get off at end of the line and walk up the mountainside a few trails and we will have a nice feed ready for you, and a cup of BOOTH'S BETTER BLEND COFFEE. Pa thinks there's no coffee like it for stimulating him to greater efforts in this world's work.

Love to all in the Valley.

Yours sincerely,

Marmaduke Montgomery.

"Haig's dashing Britishers
Will be pinned against the coast!"
That is what the Germans said,
And it was a handsome boast.
But the British held the lines
Against the German host
While we went marching through
Deutschland.

The Kaiser's dashing Uhlan boys
Shall never win the day.
In whatever force they come
We'll hold them at bay
Till the gallant French arrive
To deal them out their pay,
While we go marching through
Deutschland.

"Joffre's hardy cuirassiers
Shall never drive us back!"
'Twas the Germans' foolish boast
Ere they began to crack.
Now their lines begin to give—
They're being driven back,
While we go marching through
Deutschland.

"Pershing's confounded Yankee boys
Will never hold the trench!"
That is what the Germans said
When we replaced the French.
But their attacks are beaten down,
Our grip they can not wrench,
Nor keep us from marching through
Deutschland.

About thirty members of the First Methodist Church of Pasadena will attend the Epworth League in Glendale. Twelve of them will remain throughout the sessions.

Mrs. W. H. Wagner of 1515 West Broadway goes to Escondido today, Friday, for a three weeks' visit with a sister who resides there.

The meeting of the Y. P. B., which was to have been held Saturday night at the home of Vivian Engle, has been postponed until further notice on account of the convention meetings, which many young people will wish to attend.

Miss Gertrude Champlain, the popular pianiste of Glendale, played for the Harmonia Club of Los Angeles on Thursday afternoon. The program for this occasion was devoted to nature music and Miss Champlain gave two numbers from a group of California sketches composed by Julius Kranz, entitled "Land of Flowers" and "Sunshine." Miss Champlain rendered these in splendid style and won hearty applause from the members of the club.

Mrs. George Lyon of 1459 Riverdale drive was the hostess at a dinner Wednesday evening at which the guest of honor was James Lyon of Camp Kearny. Beautiful roses were used in the carrying out of a pink and white color scheme at the table, which was dainty in all its appointments. Guests were Erma Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. M. Lyon, Isabel Lyon, Bobby Lyon, Mrs. B. F. Burlingham, Daphne Burlingham, and James Lyon. The evening was spent with music and conversation.

Miss Esther Shremp goes to Claremont today to be the week-end guest of Miss Evangeline Hunchberger, a student at Pomona College, and to attend the May Masque which is to be given by the women of Pomona College Saturday evening in the Greek theatre as a Red Cross benefit. May 11th is to be made a women's day at Pomona. In the morning there will be a Red Cross Conference with delegates from all the high schools of Southern California. The girls will enjoy a dansant luncheon and the members of the Phi Beta Kappa in Southern California will have their meeting at the same place. A Red Cross garden party and an hour of music in Bridges hall are planned for the afternoon.

DEATH OF ANNA NIELSEN SNYDER

Mrs. Anna Nielsen Snyder, beloved wife of E. S. Snyder, passed away at her home in Burbank May 8 at the age of 33.

Mrs. Snyder was born in Missouri and at an early age was educated in the East, where she became a musician of note.

She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, father, sister and brother.

Funeral services will be held at the Little Church of the Flowers, in Forest Lawn, Saturday afternoon at 1:30, Scovern-Letton-Frey Co. in charge.

QUARTET OF FISHERMEN

Charles Wolfe, Ex-Mayor Joe S. Thompson, M. H. Phillips and A. H. Lapham returned last Sunday afternoon from a very successful fishing trip at Big Bear Lake. They arrived there late Friday evening and did not get a chance to display their ability until early Saturday morning. They each caught the limit shortly after noon and had to wait until daylight Sunday before again going after the big ones. At ten a. m. Sunday the quartet had all caught their second limit. As Jos. Thompson expressed himself: "It was the first time in my life that I ever went on a fishing trip that I had to go home because I had too many fish." The biggest trout landed weighed 3¼ pounds. They report the roads in fairly good shape by the Mill Creek route and not quite so good coming down on the other side. Few limits were caught and our fellow townsmen are to be congratulated on their ability to get fish, especially salmon trout, when many experts had to return with empty creels.

CENTRAL AVENUE P.-T. A.

The Central avenue P.-T. A. held its regular monthly meeting May 9th in the school auditorium, with the president, Mrs. C. A. Lehman, in the chair.

Reports were read by the chairmen of the various departments, showing splendid work that has been done during the past year, which has been a very successful one. Of special interest was the report of Miss MacIntyre, principal, of sales of Thrift Stamps by the school, totalling $1119. The Association has 46 members enrolled and is a very live wire as an organization.

Mrs. Opal Greenwalt was speaker for the afternoon. She came with words of encouragement to officers and members, urging them to continue their fine work. She impressed upon them the fact that they are working in the most wonderful organization in the world, as its sole object is child welfare.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Mrs. George Dewey, President.
Mrs. Laura Sampson, First Vice-President.
Mrs. A. L. Morgan, Second Vice-President.
Mrs. Clarence Crawford, Secretary.
Mrs. E. D. Wyman, Treasurer.
Mrs. R. T. Burr, Historian.
Mrs. C. H. Mertens, Auditor.

GLENDALIANS INVITED TO ATTEND MAY MASQUE

A general invitation is extended to citizens of Glendale through the president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club to attend the May Masque, "The Length of a Dozen Dreams," presented in the Greek auditorium, Claremont, tomorrow evening, May 11th. The masque, which is patriotic in theme, was written by Miss Theresa Cogswell of the college alumni, 1912. It is being financed by the women's organizations of Pomona College and the entire proceeds are to be devoted to the Red Cross. The price of admission is 35 cents and 20 cents.

Miss Carol Willisford of Glendale, a student at Pomona College, is taking an active part in arranging for the costuming the production.

BEAUTIFUL FRANCE

Mrs. Lorena Cramer of 553 East Acacia avenue has had two or three letters from her soldier son, Wallace Cramer, who is now in France. He was a Glendale High boy and has many friends here. His last letter, received April 29th, was just five weeks on the way. He wrote that he was very well and that she was not to worry about him. His previous letter she has given for publication as follows:

Somewhere in France,
March 13, 1918.

Dear Mother:

I have arrived in my new home safely and am certainly glad, as I do not exactly enjoy sea travel in transports. We had nice weather all the way, but these transports, converted passenger vessels, are filled so full of men it makes easy movement about them impossible. We arrived here the tenth, just twenty days after leaving El Paso, Tex.

Everything here seems a little odd to us all. Of course that is what one would expect to find, being in a foreign country. These people may be progressive, but from what I have seen from this place, which ought to be a busy town, modern buildings are a minus quantity, all looking as old as it is possible to be. Their farms are very pretty, the ones I have seen so far. Most of them are surrounded by an old mossy stone fence or a hedge. Every little spot seems to have something planted on it. The houses are all of stone built in the quaintest of architecture. I would like to visit this country in peace time, as I imagine the farming districts would be the prettiest you could find anywhere in the world. On some of the farms I noticed soldiers working, I suppose they are on furlough from the front and are spending their time sowing the spring crops. You see it is warm here, just like California in November.

We at present are just a few miles from our port of arrival and I suppose we will be here only a short time and will then be shipped to a permanent training camp. The barracks are very old by all appearances and I think may have held many soldiers of long gone days.

I guess this is about all the news I am allowed to write without having it blotted out.

Lovingly,
WALLACE.
